GISD trustees approve $15M bond sale

By Juliana Mathews/newseditor@gonzalescannon.com

Monday's regular board meeting saw the approval of the sale of $15 million in building bonds.

After investment advisor John Roebuck's presentation, the board voted to approve the issuance, sale, and delivery of GISD school building bonds. Just under $15 million in funds will be available to the district March 27.

Amanda Reed, Business Manager, received Special Recognition for her completion of Texas Association of School Business Officials (TASBO) certification. Valerie Reddell and Rob Ford of the Gonzales Inquirer, Diane Meyers of KCTI, and the Gonzales Cannon's Dave Mundy were nominated to the Honor Roll of the Texas Association of School Board Media.

In the Superintendent's Report, Dr. Strozier announced EOC, and STAR testing starts the end of March. An increase in enrollment was also noted.

The Volunteer Reception is at 10:00 a.m. on March 6.
